human in disguise

10 1 1

Chapter 1 by Lukas Hentges

It all starts in a little town called maple town. A young half human boy lived under the street. one day he started seeing these sort of monsters in which he had to fight off .

Chapter 2 by Hidden_Meaning

A slithering noise came creeping into his mind. Had he imagined it, or was it reality? He brushed off his dirty brown clothes, and turned around. "What was I so afraid of?" he asked himself looking at a little red snake slithering around on the ground. The snake hissed at him. He laughed, not intimidated much at all. Suddenly, the snake jumped up, bit his leg and fell to the ground. Blue blood started trickling down the boy's leg. He was exposed! He wiped his leg and looked at the snake again. It had grown spikes, and legs! It looked like a miniature dragon. It started growing, growing, growing, growing! He couldn't believe his eyes. He hadn't seen anything like this on earth, let alone in any of the other dimensions. He tried to crush the snake's head, but it grew angrier, blue blood dripping from its mouth. What was he to do?
